Doctor Englemann

Dear Sir

When Prof. Stimpson gave me the accompanying letter to you, & book for your St. Louis Society, I expected to visit your city on my way south, but the sudden severe illness of my wife made it necessary to hasten to a warmer climate, and we went to Cairo instead of St. Louis to take a boat. Will you do me the favor to deliver the book to the St. Louis Academy of Science and explain the delay?

I hope to have the pleasure of calling on you next month when I expect to visit your city.

With great respect
Yrs +
J. E. Doggett.
